Call To Worship Psalm 103:6-14

The Lord works righteousness and justice for all who are oppressed. He made known his ways to Moses, his acts to the people of Israel. The Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love. He will not always chide, nor will he keep his anger forever. He does not deal with us according to our sins, nor repay us according to our iniquities. For as high as the heavens are above the earth, so great is his steadfast love toward those who fear him; as far as the east is from the west, so far does he remove our transgressions from us. As a father shows compassion to his children, so the Lord shows compassion to those who fear him. For he knows our frame; he remembers that we are dust.

Mission News

This is IDOP (International Day of Prayer) Sunday, when Christians worldwide remember persecuted fellow believers. It is important to know that, according to World Watch, tens of thousands of Christians, mostly new converts from Islam, Buddhism, Hinduism and in Communist countries, suffer brutal torture, languish in prisons and many are killed every year for accepting to follow Jesus. Even children witness the brutal deaths of family members. The courage of these believers puts us to shame here in the West where our faith is seldom tested beyond a few insults. To meet these brave people and see their scars is so inspiring. LET US PRAY FOR THEM AND THEIR FAMILIES WHO ARE OFTEN LEFT DESTITUTE, not only today, but every day as the Bible instructs us to in Hebrews 13:3.
